Dear Jonathan,

It is thoughtful of you to offer me access to parts of the Posner interview transcript but without knowing what they talked about I cannot really say what interests me-other than anything at all the wretch says because he has trouble telling the truth even by accident.

I would like to read a copy on a confidential basis and use a highlighter to indicate what interests me when I return it.

I understand, not from my publisher, that my Case Opened is due in April. So of course I want to read everything he says before then.

Sincerely,

Harold
